Required Notification: Citizen's Complaint Process:

It is a requirement that we inform families of the formal complaint process for resolving issues of violation of a Title I Federal regulation. If you have a concern with Title I services and/or regulations we encourage you to contact your child's Title I teaching team, Tom Gresham, principal and/or the district's Title I office (676-6542). You can also access the Citizen's Complaint Process through the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI) in Olympia. Forms are available in the office and the links below have all of the information for filing a complaint through OSPI. Links for citizen's complaints should be placed on Title I documents for parents and community
